Pasteur was a French scientist. He noticed that many diseases are caused by germs and he also found cures for several of them. At first, he treated only animals because he didn't want to cause death of any human being. He found a mad dog and injected some weak germs of its disease into its blood. The dog was cured. One day, a boy named Jo. Joseph Meister was brought to him. He had been bitten by a mad dog.

Pasteur gave him some injections and the boy did not get the dog's disease. The news of Pasteur's success spread all over the world. Other doctors began to study his works.

The pie chart represents us the sources of USA electricity in 1980. From the pie chart we can see that the highest amount of electricity come from coal. It is 46%. From the burning of the coal, it produces harmful green house gas. Secondly we can see that the second highest amount of electricity come from natural gas. It is 26%. Those are natural elements. If we don't use wisely, it will finish one day. 16% of electricity come from hydro-energy. We can also see that 12%

2%. Though it is using a least amount,

it has a huge amount of radiation effect.

At the end, we can tell, most of the energy sources are limited in the world.

If we do not use it wisely it will finish.

one day and we have to face hazardous consequences.
